INTERESTED IN JOINING A FAITH EXPRESSION GROUP?

- _____ Adopt-A-Grandparent — visit elderly residents at Bartels on a regular, supportive basis
- _____ Psalm 149 (Worship Dance) — Express your faith through dance on campus and in congregations.
- _____ Catholic Knights — Gather with other Roman Catholic students for fellowship and learning.
- _____ Chapel Choir — Use your voice for God's praise. All students welcome. Contact Dr. Karen Black, director, for more information.
- _____ Faith Alive — outreach ministry to youth, weekly gatherings for small group support and Christian nurture.
- _____ Voices of Praise — Gospel music shared on and off campus. Practice weekly.
- _____ Fellowship of Christian Athletes — recreation, Bible study and Christian fellowship in action!
- _____ A Knight's Armor — Help design and produce a faith-based magazine. Use your gifts to help make this magazine resource available to others once a year.
- _____ Koinonia is the servant leadership community for Spiritual Life and Campus Ministry. The name comes from the Greek word which means "a community with a purpose". Koinonia's purpose is to be "a Listening Community where prayer, compassion, love and hospitality are reflected in daily actions that bring Jesus alive." We do this through prayer, spiritual practices, listening to God and others, and planning events for SLCM. If you'd like to join Koinonia please contact Pastor Brian (brian.beckstrom@wartburg.edu).
- _____ Manna — Work with networks of people across the country to alleviate hunger. Manna is committed to hunger awareness, education about the causes of hunger, and action that can make a difference at the local, national, and global level.
- _____ Wartburg Embracing Bremwood Groups — Wednesday night, religious education with children and youth at Bremwood Lutheran Home in Waverly.

Please complete and return to the Spiritual Life and Campus Ministry Office or place in the Chapel Narthex.
