

Welcome to Wartburg College

New Student Orientation 2011

Congratulations on your new start as a Knight! We are excited that you will soon be joining the Wartburg community. The staff, faculty and students at Wartburg are planning to assist you through orientation and your time here.

Many of you already know the ins and outs of college life. However, orientation will help you become acquainted with Wartburg specifically. Members of the staff and student body will be available to answer questions concerning student life, class registration, residential life, activities and much more.

We will meet Sunday, Jan. 9, at 5 p.m. in the Cardinal Commons (Lounge Area in Grossman/Lohe Residence Halls) for the first portion of orientation. Dinner will be provided. A continental breakfast and lunch will be provided on Monday, January 10th as well.

Parents and other family members are welcome to join you as you move in and begin life at Wartburg. Their questions are important ones and we are available to your family as we

We look forward to meeting and getting to know you as you get settled at Wartburg College. If we can answer any questions for you regarding Orientation, please do not hesitate to contact us at (319) 352-8260.

Welcome to Wartburg!
